The instrument listed above remains at all times the property of Education Queensland, and is issued to the student subject to the following conditions:

- a) The instrument will be used by the student to whom it is lent and by no other person.
- b) Every care and attention will be given to the instrument during the period of the loan.
- c) The instrument will be returnable upon demand at any time for inspection, repair and adjustment or for any other cause.
- d) It will be the hirer's responsibility to cover loss/theft of or damage to the instrument, case or accessories through the hirer's own funds or insurance policy (which may require the instrument to be listed separately on the household contents policy). Loss or damage of any instrument on loan will immediately be reported to the school. The choice of repairer and the type of repairs will be made by the school, and not by the student or family. Strings parents do not need to consult with the school for the repair/replacement of strings, the bridge or the bow.
- e) Consumables (e.g. reeds, strings, etc) will be the student's responsibility.
- f) Instrument maintenance will be the school's responsibility.
- g) If, in the opinion of the instrumental teacher, the student is not carrying out reasonable practice or shows little progress with the instrument, the loan may be terminated.
- h) If the student does not observe school policy regarding attendance at rehearsals, lessons or performances, the loan may be terminated.
- i) The instrument will be returned at the end of Semester II (or sooner if leaving the school).

I, the undersigned, undertake the loan of the instrument outlined on this document on behalf of the student named above, and subject to all of the conditions outlined herein. I agree to undertake reasonable supervision of the use of the instrument.
